ST. JOSEPH ACADEMY TO OPEN

1942-1943 School Session Tuesday, September 8; Registration Sept. 4-7

St. Joseph Academy will open for the 1942-43 school session on Tuesday, September 8th with registration days on September 4th and 7th.

During the past few weeks, the class rooms, gymnasium and campus have been gone over and gotten in readiness for the next school year.

The primary purpose of the Sisters of Saint Joseph is to train Christian women by the harmonious development of the heart, the mind, and the body, and the secondary purpose is to qualify their students to be useful and accomplished members of society.

The course of studies is that of a full four-year high school, specializing in college entrance requirements and a general course is offered and commercial subjects are taught.

Saint Joseph Academy is Accredited by the Mississippi State Department of Education with High School and Grammar Grades for boarding and day pupils and it is a Member of the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools.

Extra-curricular Activities — A great part of the training and development takes place in these activities, for a child's education is one-sided and incomplete without participating in the social life of the school. It is through participation in the extra-curricular activities that the ideals advocated in the classroom are further developed and strengthened. Saint Joseph's Memorial Hall is splendidly equipped for dramatics and athletics. The extra-curricular activities are sufficiently varied to suit every Catholic or non-Catholic child's interest.

Among them are: Sodality of the Blessed Virgin, Sodality of Saint Agnes, Sodality of the Holy Angels, Athletics, Library Club, Scouts, Glee Club and Dramatics.

While keeping abreast of the times, the school has not suffered the ever changing fads to affect its discipline. The girls are taught to obey through a sense of duty and not through constraint. The discipline is mild, firm, and homelike as possible.

However, cooperation from parents which is absolutely essential in the education of children, is earnestly solicited. The institution is anxious for the future of the child and feels that if both teachers and parents work together, far better results can be attained, hence parents are asked to aid and encourage their children to:

1. Attend classes regularly and punctually

2. Conform always to uniform regulations

3. Take proper care of books lent by the state

4. Participate in school activities.

In accordance with the wishes of the parents of the school children, the same uniform as last year's pleated skirts and white blouse with no colored trimming, navy blue sweater and tam will be required, as this was decided by parents last school session. However, each student will be asked to have a white pleated skirt of any desired material for the many occasions through the school session when it is necessary for the children to participate in school activities in white.

Mother St. John, superior of St. Joseph Academy, has been transferred to the academy at New Roads, Louisiana, and will be replaced by Mother Claire, former well known superior of the local academy.

Other changes in the faculty are the transfer of Sister Anna Mary, high school teacher, who goes to Mount Washington, near Cincinnati, Ohio, who is being replaced by Sister Louise Raphael, from Mount Washington; Sister Mary of the Rosary who taught the third and fourth grades is being replaced by Sister Frances Xavier; and Sister Eileen who taught first and second grades is being replaced by Sister Mary Blainde.

Mother St. John had been superior at St. Joseph Academy since 1937, and had made a number of beneficial changes in the school's curriculum during her term and had endeavored herself to everyone, and her leave will be deeply regretted by everyone whose pleasure it has been to know her.

Sister Anna Mary, for fourteen years a member of the faculty and prominent in the school activities, especially for her great interest in athletics and sodality work, will be sadly missed by the student body in general.

Sister Mary of the Rosary's excellent voice which was an inspiration to many of the music-loving students and whose sweet guidance over her girls and boys will be replaced by another such as herself, Sister Frances Xavier who is so well known locally, having taught here before.

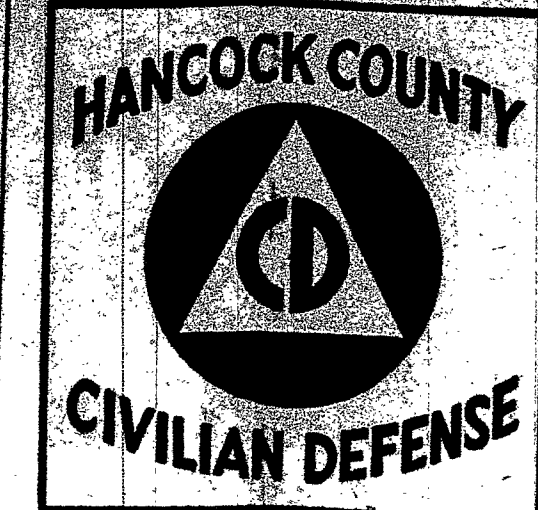

Sister Eileen, a former student at the Academy and teacher of the beginners, leaves the memory of intelligent and gentle care and teaching of the tots who had been in her charge.

Mother Claire and Sister Louise Raphael, both former teachers on the faculty of the local academy, are teachers of splendid reputation and with Sisters Frances Xavier and Mary Blainde and the former members of the faculty complete a teaching staff which assures an excellent school session for 1942-1943.

On Thursday morning when the Clerk of Courts office opened a canary bird flew in. The little bird was caged and is being taken care of by the office force until such time as the owner claims him. The bird has two leg bands. Undoubtedly the bird belongs to someone in the vicinity of the Courthouse.

General Practice Black Out Soon.

Quite a bit of publicity is being given to the general black out to be held in the near future for South Mississippi and Louisiana.

The signal for this black out will come from the Third Interceptor Command, New Orleans District Air Raid Warden Service. This office has been urged to impress on all civilians the seriousness of these practice black outs for no matter how much planning is done ahead of time they cannot be effective unless the general public makes them so.

New Appointments Mr. Lucien Gex has been made Chief of Messenger Service.

Mr. E. S. Drake, Chief of Fire Services.

Mr. E. J. Ulmer, Captain of Air Raid Wardens for Waveland replacing Mr. Cornelius Herlihy resigned.

Lectures on Fire and Gas Defense and Decontamination were given Wednesday afternoon and Wednesday night of this week by Mrs. McDonald, Mr. Cox and Dr. Evans for the benefit of a few who lacked just an hour or two of training along these lines to qualify for graduation.

Graduation Thursday Night If you are interested in seeing what a Civilian Defense Graduation is like don't fail to come to the Courthouse, Thursday night, August 20th at 8 p. m. There will be over 150 people receiving insignia for different squads and a demonstration of how the Control Center functions. There will also be a quiz put on by staff members which will afford entertainment for the audience.

The public is invited.

FATHER GARRITY IN NAVY

Just one week after the United States Army had called an alumnus of St. Augustine's Seminary to serve in the Army Chaplains Corps, the Navy issued a call to a member of the teaching faculty of St. Augustine's to serve in the Navy Chaplains Corps. Rev. Joseph Garrity, S. V. D., Professor of English at the Seminary for the past two years, was commissioned a lieutenant junior grade in the U. S. Navy on August 11. BLACK-OUT TO BE HELD SOON

Military Authorities to Order Trial Black Out in South Mississippi At Early Date

The Mississippi Civilian Defense Council has announced that at an early date a large portion of Mississippi will be thrown into total darkness in a trial black-out, on twenty-four hours notice from the Military Authorities.

The Mississippi area to be blacked out covers approximately all of the State south of the A. & V. Railroad, except Newton, Lauderdale and Clark Counties.

The Civilian Defense Council wishes to remind the general public that county and municipal authorities are empowered, under House Bill No. 83, Chapter 175 of the General Laws of Mississippi, passed at the 1942 Session of the Legislature, to "Arrest any person, or persons who fail to comply with rules and regulations for black-outs."

In addition to this Act which is quoted below, municipal ordinances for black-outs are already in effect.

CHAPTER 175 House Bill No. 903

AN ACT to provide for promulgation of rules and regulations for black-outs and the enforcement thereof.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Mississippi, That the mayor and board of aldermen or mayor and commissioners of any organized municipality and the board of supervisors in that part of any county outside of organized municipalities are hereby empowered and authorized to promulgate such rules and regulations as may be necessary for the public safety by turning off or concealing all electric signs, neon signs, store or home lighting, headlights on automobiles, search lights, spotlights, flashlights of any other source of lights in order to make a complete black-out in any area deemed necessary for the public safety. Failure to comply with the rules and regulations so promulgated shall constitute a felony and upon conviction thereof shall be punishable by imprisonment of not less than one year nor more than two years in the state penitentiary.

SECTION 2. The mayor and board of aldermen of any organized municipality and board of supervisors in that part of any county outside of organized municipalities are hereby authorized and empowered to appoint officers whose duty it shall be to see that the rules and regulations

On Tuesday morning at 10:00 o'clock, Mr. Russell Ellzey State Secretary of the Salvage for Victory Committee, held a meeting at the Hancock County Courthouse with the Chairman and members of the Salvage for Victory Campaign Committee in Hancock County.

Mr. Ellzey expressed his appreciation for the efforts being made in the county to gather up all of the scrap material. He went into quite a discussion with the committee as to the method to be adopted in carrying on the drive for scrap material.

Mr. Al Voight, Hancock County Chairman, has set up tentative plans to carry on this drive. In the county, outside of the City of Bay St. Louis, the drive will be in charge of the members of the United States Department of Agriculture War Board, the faculties of the schools throughout the county and the school children; and in the City of Bay St. Louis, the local civic organizations, together with the faculties of the schools and the school children. Both of these organizations will be supplemented and supported by the county officials and the city officials of Bay St. Louis.

It is the purpose of the Salvage Committee to put forth every effort in this drive for scrap materials. Mississippi has a quota of 51,000 tons of scrap material to be gathered during the remainder of this year.

Hancock County will have its proportionate quota and we feel certain that the people of the county will respond if proper emphasis is put on the urgent need for securing this scrap metal and if proper methods are set up for the gathering of this material.

The Committee, headed by Mr. Voight, is laying plans so that the metal can be gathered in each community throughout the county and brought to a central point, and from there it will be picked up by trucks and brought to Bay St. Louis for shipment. In the City of Bay St. Louis this material will be picked up by trucks furnished by the City and by the Works Progress Administration, and if the people who have any scrap metal on hand will only call a member of the Scrap Committee, or Mr. Voight, Chairman of the Committee, whose telephone number is 102, he will see that a truck call for the scrap.

Plans are being tentatively laid for a Scrap Rally Day to be held in the county. Rather elaborate plans will be formulated, and the Committee feels certain that when this rally is held, that the people will, by that time, have become conscious of the fact that scrap metals are urgently needed.

It has been brought to our attention numerous times that 50 per cent of all metal used in the construction of war equipment comes from scrap metals, that manufacturing plants can pour approximately five times as much finished product when scrap metals are used, as when ore is used. It should be an incentive to all to join in this drive, feeling that when we have done so, we have lent an effort to the winning of the war.

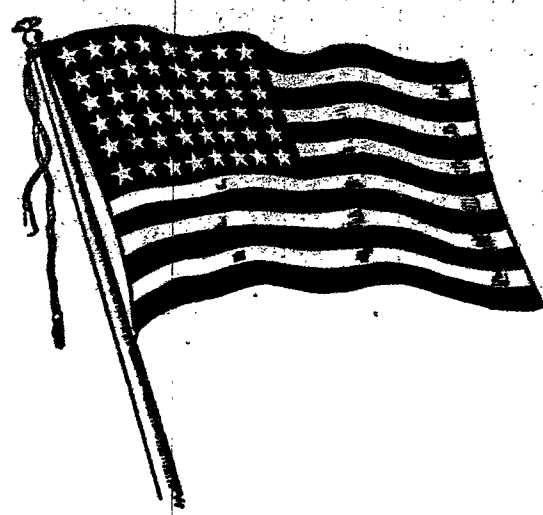

Many times people see a pile of metal awaiting shipment along the railroad and offer criticism because it is not moved to a foundry. We must realize that when it is placed in the stock pile it is accessible for the use of our Government; if it is lying around the barn, or in the attic, or the cellars of the different homes throughout the county, it is of no use to our Government, and we should further realize that it takes time to gather this material, and for that reason, we are urged to carry on, so that at the conclusion of this drive we will definitely know how much material can be depended upon as it will be in stock piles, as the Government will have a concise report of the amount in each stock pile throughout the county.

May we again urge you to lend your efforts in this drive, and let's make it a successful one.

for blackouts are complied with; and who shall have the authority to arrest any person or persons who fail to comply with said rules and regulations. These officers to serve without pay.

Section 3. That this act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved March 19, 1942.

THE DIMOUT

REPORTS reaching us are to the effect that the coastal line of Hancock County is the best dimmed out of the entire coast of the Gulf of Mexico. We can personally vouch for the truthfulness of these reports, having had occasion to drive to Appalachicola, Florida, last Friday night, and being able to observe the dim out from Bay St. Louis to that point. After leaving Pass Christian, we found that there was very little observance of the dim out regulations along the coastal area; particularly from Pensacola to Appalachicola. The road traveled in this area lies along the Gulf, and we were astounded to see the number of cars driving along this road with bright lights, that certainly must have caused a reflection upon the skies that would have silhouetted any ship travelling in that area, and a ship travelling in that area is far closer to the shore than it is along the Mississippi Coast line.

The people in this area are quite serious about all war measures, and we cannot understand why people in other areas should not be in the same attitude as we, in this area, are. The people in Hancock County were told that the reflection from bright lights would probably cause the sinking of ships; the officials were asked to cooperate and to pass necessary resolutions and ordinances for the control of lighting; and the people of Hancock County have responded wonderfully in this matter. It has probably been a matter of inconveniencing themselves in driving their cars, but what is a little inconvenience when it may mean the lives of men who are plying the seas, in order that the boys in service may have the necessary supplies and foodstuffs.

It is with justifiable pride that we join with many others in saying to the people of our County; that you are a patriotic people; that as and when you are asked to perform an act, or join in a move that would safeguard the lives of men engaged in carrying on this war; or in any other move that would be of benefit toward the winning of the war; you accept the same as a command. That is, in our opinion, the real American spirit.

We are happy to be a part and parcel of a community of this type, and may we continue to carry on and help in our small way, so that this war may be brought to a rapid conclusion, with our forces victorious; so that we may continue to live in our usual happy and carefree manner and have with us our loved ones who are now placing their lives in jeopardy for us.

WARNING ALL AMERICANS

ADMIRAL William D. Leahy, who served as Ambassador to France and is now the President's Chief-of-Staff, warns America that the war picture today is "grim," and predicts that this "will be the toughest, hardest, most merciful war we have ever fought."

From his post in the Pacific, Admiral Chester W. Nimitz, Commander-in-Chief of the U. S. Pacific Fleet, declares that victory "will be achieved" only through undreamed of sacrifices and privations.

These leaders are not trying to fool the American people. They want us to understand the serious battles that lie ahead and to summon the full power of every American, including those on the home front as well as those in the services, to the needs of the hour.

WHY THE DIFFERENCE?

IT IS rather difficult for the layman to understand how one shipyard can produce an emergency cargo ship in 108 days while another requires as many as 276 days to construct the same type of vessel.

Much the same mystery surrounds the construction of Liberty ships. The time required varies from 46 days to 204 days. It happens that Henry J. Kaiser's Oregon shipbuilding corporation, at Portland, Oregon, has turned out the quickest ships up to August 1st.

To study the record would indicate that something is wrong somewhere, but the problem is not quite that simple. An expert, investigating the various yards, would be able to give the reasons that explain the various records. They would relate to labor, equipment, supplies and organization.

The idea that this war is being fought to demonstrate that all races are equal is as fallacious as the first World War conclusion that all nations were equal.

CANDIDATES

ON next Tuesday, August 25th, the people of Mississippi will nominate a United States Senator, and we in the Sixth Congressional District will nominate a Congressman.

Around the Senatorial campaign has developed much discussion as to the ability and accomplishments of the various candidates. If one were to take seriously all of the claims and charges made by the various candidates, we would probably become convinced that Mississippi is the only State in the Union that has, has had, or would have, any representation in the United States Senate.

We are not in a position to pass on the claims of the respective candidates. We have our choice and we expect to vote for that man in the race for Senator.

To listen to these gentlemen one would become convinced that the burden of our National Government rests solely on their respective shoulders.

In the Congressional race there has been very little said or done. Mr. Colmer has made a very able Representative. He is of a rather quiet nature and not of the braggadocio type. He is of the type that would rather have the people of his district judge what he has done, than to shout from the house-tops of his accomplishments. One need only look over the Sixth Congressional District and see the number of Government Projects located therein, to realize that we have been well represented in Congress.

He is a member of the powerful Rules Committee of the House and if continued in service, in time will be Chairman of this committee. We believe that his return to Congress means much more to the Sixth Congressional District of Mississippi, than who is to be elected United States Senator. We feel that Mr. Colmer can probably do more for the people of his District, than any one of the men who are candidates for the Senate, and we certainly hope that the people of Hancock County will take time out on Tuesday, August 25th, and go to the polls and vote for the ablest representative we have had in Congress since the days of the illustrious Pat Harrison.

AN EXAMPLE THAT SHOULD BE FOLLOWED

WHEN Judge Arthur J. Tuttle sentenced Max Stephan, German-born, naturalized citizen of the United States to death for assisting a German pilot who had escaped from a Canadian prison camp and who was later captured in Texas, he stated:

"This is no ordinary war; if the lives of many of our boys are being taken to help such a cause, this Court should not hesitate to take the life of one traitor, if it in turn will help that same just cause."

The lives of many of our boys will be taken to help the cause of freedom, and the action of Judge Tuttle in sentencing this traitor to death, was correct. When a man has accepted the hospitality of this country and has accepted the worldly gains that he has accumulated in this country, that it would have been impossible for him to have accumulated in the country of his birth, and accepts an American citizenship, and then becomes a traitor to his adopted country, death, in our opinion is too good for him.

We have been just a little too soft in dealing with men of this type. This traitor, Max Stephan, now boasts that he will not die as the court has declared. We wonder if he is stupid enough to believe that his native country will win this war before the date is reached, for which his execution is scheduled. We are afraid that the odds are against him in this matter.

We have many other Max Stephens in this country, and it is about time that similar sentences are meted out to them. Mere jail sentences are not sufficient. If and when we will settle down in stride and give the death sentence to whoever may be guilty of any subversive activities that would tend to break down the morale of the people, or undermine the welfare of this country, we believe that we will be headed in the right direction and will probably put an end to the organization of societies such as the German-American Bund, the Silver Shirts and many others. The leaders of these groups should not be toyed with. The sentencing of men of the type of Pelley to jail, in our opinion does not go far enough. The actions of men of this type are not for the good of our country. It is far better to remove them from circulation and place them in a safe spot, from which we are certain they will not return, and jail is not that place.

RAILROADS ENJOY PROSPERITY

WALL Street operatives are quick to sense a change in the financial position of the country's railroads and in recent sessions, of the New York Stock Exchange, railroad bonds and shares have provided most of the daily business.

Many experts estimate that the railways will earn $660,000,000 or more in 1942 despite heavy war-time taxes and expenses. This is explained by the fact that passenger business has increased eighty per cent and freight eighty-five per cent above 1939 levels.

It should be noted that the railroads have been operating far below capacity for many years. Preparedness and the war have brought them the difference between operating at a loss and making a substantial profit. This does not mean that the process of profits is unlimited. When the full slack of the operating roads has been taken up, new business will require expansion which will be a losing proposition unless business holds up for the emergency passes.

Never forget that the Japs and the Germans are just as confident of winning this war as we are.

The Germans will know what an aerial offensive is like when the Army Air Force joins the R. A. F. in dropping bombs.

The United States is just "ankle deep" in the war and this ought to give Hirohito and Adolph some idea of what will happen when we get "knee deep."

Amid the heroism of our war against the aggressors patriotic response of the American woman stands out in bold headlines.

The American woman has gained much under our system of free effort and equal opportunity. She has more to lose than any one else, should the Republic slip and the heel of an alien tyranny press down upon our necks. So woman's consecration to duty is as natural as it is essential to ultimate victory.

The morale of our fighting men at the front never rises any higher than the faith, loyalty and fortitude of the woman they leave behind.

Finances also are important to this conflict: As substantial customers of this bank, women share in a large measure our resources and in our usefulness. As far as we can reciprocate in a world crisis, we pledge our unstinted cooperation.

"TORTILLA FLAT"
COMES TO LIFE IN
PICTURESQUE FILMTo Be Shown at A. & G.
Theater, Sunday and Monday

There is double satisfaction in the picture, "Tortilla Flat," for those who read John Steinbeck's novel, and for those who missed it. The film brings his memorable characters to life recreating the picturesque California colony of paisanos near Monterey.

Readers of the book will rejoice in the visual recreation. Those who never saw the novel will be thrilled by the beauty and action of the story. Both will be pleasantly entertained.

Spencer Tracy, Hedy Lamarr and John Garfield co-star in the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer adaptation, which will open Sunday at the A. & G. Theater. Victor Fleming, director of "Gone With the Wind," and many other distinguished pictures, directed this.

The supporting cast is superb, faithfully reflecting the lovable characters of the novel. They include the inimitable Frank Morgan, with Akim Tamiroff, Sheldon Leonard, John Qualen, Donald Meek, Connie Gilchrist, Allen Jenkins and Henry O'Neill.

Superb Acting
Tracy's role is a distinct departure from any of his previous characterizations. As the philosophical Pilon, drawn between the good and bad of life, he reaches a high peak in his career. Miss Lamarr, as Dolores, a desirable paisano charmer, demonstrates her dramatic abilities beyond anything she has yet attempted. John Garfield, her suitor, the lazy, impetuous Danny, is at his best.

The pulsing action of the love story, the battles and the tranquil interludes, have been captured under Fleming's direction by a cast of unusual competence and understanding.

The audience at the initial showing was swept into spontaneous applause by the artistry of the cast, the effective qualities of the scenes and the dramatic action of the story.

CEILING PRICES MUST BE POSTED! SAYS
REPRESENTATIVE

Retailers were again cautioned to make proper display of their ceiling prices on cost-of-living items by Mr. J. L. Reeves of the State Office of OPA, who was in Bay St. Louis this week.

Mr. Reeves emphasized OPA regulations which require that ceiling prices on cost-of-living items be posted clearly near the articles to which they apply. A general list in a remote section of the store is not permissible, he stated.

The Office of Price Administration representative declared that a vast majority of retailers were quick to comply with regulations, but that some still do not understand the procedure which they must follow in posting their ceiling prices.

Every item defined as a cost-of-living commodity must have a post ceiling price, Mr. Reeves declared. These must be posted on the shelves or racks where the merchandise is offered for sale. If articles of more than one price are carried generally in one display, the ceiling price of each must be marked plainly.

In complying with regulations administered by OPA, Mr. Reeves said, retailers are making a direct contribution to the war effort. The fundamental purpose of the maximum price regulation is to hold down the cost of living, which in turn brings a great reduction in the cost of producing necessary materials of war.

The Local War Price and Rationing Board has an adequate supply of General Maximum Price Regulation Bulletins Nos. 1 and 2, which provide complete information for retailers. These bulletins, which explain in detail the OPA regulations, may be secured at any time.

COMEDY STARS HARRY
JAMES WITH THE
ANDREWS SISTERS

In "The Buckaroo" Coming To Ortte Theater Sunday and Monday

Exploiting the combined musical talents of Harry James and his orchestra and the celebrated Andrews Sisters, Universal's comedy-tuneless, "Private Buckaroo" comes Sunday-Monday to Ortte Theater.

Announced as timely and elaborate screen entertainment, the story of "Private Buckaroo" deals with the adventures of a group of performers in one of Uncle Sam's Army cantonments. One novelty of the offering is said to be that a majority of the players appear as themselves.

Notables Assembled
Augmenting the Harry James aggregation and the Andrews trio are Dick Foran, Ernest Truex, Shemp Howard and Mary Wickes. Other favorites in the imposing cast include Richard Davis, Huntz Hall, Jennifer Holt, Tagalong, and the popular Jivin' Jacks and Jills.

Their present co-starring appearance in "Private Buckaroo" marks the second time the Andrews Sisters have worked with James and his Music Makers.

First point appearance of the two was at a Chicago theater a few seasons ago, when the combination shattered all box-office records for the playhouse. At that time, both the Andrews Sisters and James were on the way up. Now, with both at the top in their respective fields they meet again and are setting new entertainment records.

Edward F. Cline, one of Hollywood's most competent comedy makers, directed the gay film under the associate producership of Ken Goldsmith. Woody Bredell was the cameraman.

Louisiana family and was a widely known New Orleans Coffee House executive.

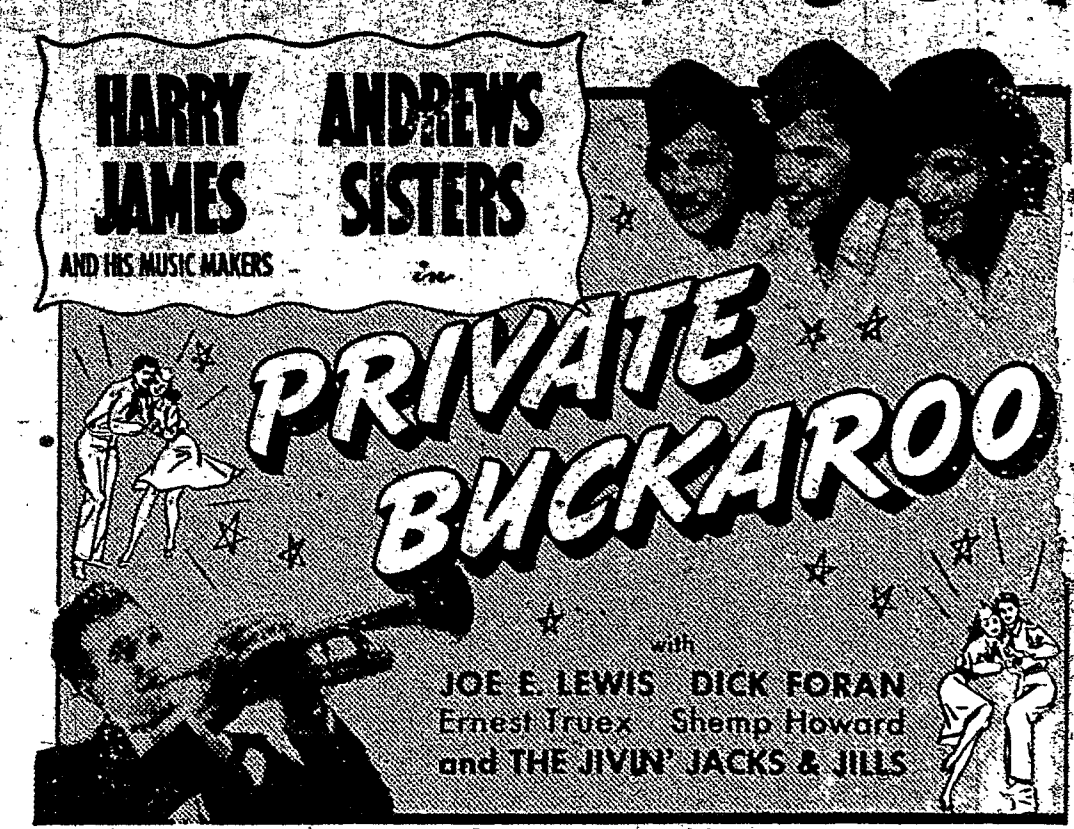

Mr. Reilly was the father of Mrs. Kenneth B. Thompson of Waveland and was not a stranger to the people of Bay St. Louis. He contributed generously to the Episcopal church here though he was, not of that faith.

Mr. Reilly was buried on Tuesday afternoon in the family cemetery at Collinston, Louisiana, and the funeral was held from the John B. Reilly Memorial Methodist Church. The Echo extends sympathy to Mrs. Thompson.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to extend our appreciation and thanks to the many friends during the death of our dear father, Victor Carco, for the kind thoughts and the beautiful floral offering. Special thanks to Father Victor and Mr. Edmund Fahey, Jr., during our sadness.

ELECTRIC APPLIANCE
SUGGESTIONS

OIL Don't forget to oil fans and motors. They're doing heavy work these days. Use a good grade of light motor oil, such as you can buy at any filling station. Oil at least once a month. Do not over-oil. A few drops, regularly applied, is enough. Keep excess oil wiped off. (Note: Some motor-driven appliances have sealed-in grease cups. They need no oiling.)

DUST Dust robs you of light. Keep dust wiped off lamp bulbs, reflectors and shades. This helps you get more light for your money. Dust robs your electric refrigerator of some of its efficiency. Keep it brushed off the radiator. Use a soft cloth or brush on the radiators of refrigerators with sealed-in units. An old tooth-brush is fine for cleaning radiators of refrigerators with open-type units. Be sure to pull the plug before you start dusting so the mechanism won't start while you have your hand close to it. Removing dust each time you defrost it a good practice.

FROST Frost accumulates rapidly on the freezing section of your refrigerator during this kind of weather. The thicker the frost, the less efficient your refrigerator is. Let the frost MELT off. Do not pry it off—you might damage the freezing unit.

ACIDS These days call for cool drinks and salads. Many of the liquids used in making them contain natural acids which are damaging to enamelware. Wipe off promptly vinegar and acid-containing juices of fruits and vegetables—they may stain or "pit" enamelware.

Program to Win the War and the Peace

Jim EASTLAND IS THE MAN!

—He's Aggressive — Capable — and Courageous!
He Will Fight for Mississippi and the South!

Jim EASTLAND went to work — he got results:

The prosperity of Mississippi and the entire South depends upon the prosperity of the farmer. Jim Eastland's record during 88-days in the Senate proved that he can get results for the farmer and the South. Appointed to the Senate for 3-months, he immediately went to work. Send Jim back to finish the job. He went to work — he got results!

—His prompt and successful fight to prevent the dumping of government-owned cotton on the market in competition with farmer-owned cotton, prevented a break in the cotton market last year of $20.00 a bale. Jim Eastland was credited by the Press of bringing $50,000,000 to Mississippi last Fall.

—He successfully fought to prevent importation of 400,000 bales of Brazilian cotton.

—He successfully fought to remove ceiling price on cottonseed. Cottonseed immediately rose from $30 to $50 a ton.

Jim EASTLAND has a plan of action:

JIM EASTLAND is the only man in the race for United States Senate with a plan for winning the war and the peace. Jim Eastland is the only man in the race for United States Senate who has the courage and ability to stand-up on the floor of the Senate and fight for his convictions and for the best interest of the farmer, the small businessmen and the South. We can win the war and then lose the peace. Realizing this truth, JIM EASTLAND stands for and will fight continually for peace terms that will bring an end during peace to America and to the world. He will fight for United States leadership in world affairs to provide for the disarming and breaking up of dictator countries so that they may never again combine to attempt world conquest and world enslavement.

Jim EASTLAND will go to work — not play politics

JIM EASTLAND will insist that we put politics aside and immediately equip our armed forces with sufficient and superior weapons that the victory may quickly be ours. JIM EASTLAND will fight for the continuance after the war of a powerful, fully equipped Army, Navy and Air Corps as assurance against future wars. He will resist every effort by pacifists who will seek to dismantle our Army, Navy and Air Corps as soon as our enemies are defeated.

JIM EASTLAND will fight for an increase in cotton acreage allotments to eliminate discriminations against small cotton farmers. He will fight for a profitable price for cotton, cottonseed, fats, dairy and farm products and for livestock. He will fight for "nothing less than parity."

NOTICE TO CREDITORS

Letters of Administration on the Estate of S. M. Mayer, deceased, were granted to the undersigned by the Chancery Court of Hancock County, Mississippi on the 18th day of August, 1942, and therefore notice is hereby given requiring all persons having claims against said estate to have same probated and registered by the Clerk of said Court, within six months from this date, and failure to so probate and register same in six months will bar the claim.

This the 18th day of August, A. D. 1942.

MRS. GEORGINA EMILY DRULHET-MAYER

Executrix of the Estate of S. M. Mayer, Deceased.

Cotton farmers will receive loans on their 1942 crop two cents per pound above those of last year. These loans are based on eighty-five percent of the parity price of cotton as of August 1. The 1942 crop is estimated at 13,025,000 bales as compared to 10,744,000 bales last year. With a better crop and a better price in prospect, 1942 should prove a banner year for the cotton farmer.

TO THE WHITE DEMOCRATIC VOTERS OF THE SIXTH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT:

WIN THE WAR

SPEEDILY AND VICTORIOUSLY

VOTE FOR

BEN STEVENS For Congress

HE WILL FIGHT FOR:

Conscription of industry,, money and labor along beside young manhood.

Abolition of all unnecessary commissions and bureaus, and unnecessary interference by Government agencies.

Farm legislation to increase farm income.

Full development of sea-food industry and oyster reefs in Mississippi.

Federal aid for public schools with local control of expenditures.

Replacement of lost revenues to counties for property taken for Government use and for gasoline tax necessary to maintain public road system, with local control of expenditures.

Adequate support for our aged and unfortunate citizens which will permit them to be self sustaining.

Adequate program for security of men in armed forces and for their relief and assistance upon their return until they are again established and absorbed in industry and civilian life.

The writing of an enduring peace when victory comes.

HE WILL FIGHT AGAINST:

Legislation to sabotage patriotic labor or industry. So long as they are on voluntary basis, he will recognize right of either to organize and collectively bargain.

Wasteful expenditures and unnecessary spending for non-defense purposes.

Discrimination against farmers.

Discriminations against sea-food workers and packers in Mississippi.

Discriminations against teachers, such as under Social Security Act.

Discriminations against local self Government, except for necessary war purposes.

Discriminations against aged citizens of our State.

He will not vote for a pension for himself.

Anything that jeopardizes the safety and general welfare of our armed forces or prevents full resources of our nation, whether persons or property, to be placed at their side.

The mistakes made in 1919 and 1920.

The Four page supplement to the Weekly newspapers of the District last week was a paid political advertisement, in which his opponent lauded himself and his record.

IN HIS AD, he failed to show one single constructive piece of legislation for the common defense of this country introduced by him and enacted into law.

HE SAID HE VOTED AGAINST PENSIONS FOR CONGRESSMEN.

LET'S SEE THE RECORD: It SHOWS that the pension bill was introduced in the House in the early part of 1941, and after lengthy and extensive committee hearings, it was placed on Consent Calendar of House by Rules Committee, of which he is a member, and PASSED UNANIMOUSLY. See Congressional Record of House December 1, 1941, and January 21, 1942.

HE ALSO SAID that as far back as 1936 he began insisting, both in committee and on the floor of the House upon the necessity of military preparedness and, as a member of the Rules Committee, handled much important legislation to this end.

HE FAILED, HOWEVER, TO INCLUDE IN HIS AD an account of his leadership on the floor of the House in 1939 and 1940 in defeat of recommendations of naval authorities, including Admiral Leahy and Admiral Hepburn, now Chief Naval Advisors to President Roosevelt, for improvements and fortifications of GUAM. Read Congressional Record of February 21, 1939, pages 2430 and 2431; February 13, 1940, page 2199; February 16, 1940, pages 2419 and 2422.

OUR NAVAL ADVISORS AND THOSE SUPPORTING THEM warned him of the necessity for such improvements and fortifications to be made at Guam, one of our islands nearer Japan than the Hawaiian or Philippine Islands; that unless they were made so that our airplanes could scout Japanese fleet and aircraft in their maneuvers, no matter how large our Navy might be, it would be impossible to prevent a surprise attack on our Pacific possessions and our country, as was made on December 7, 1941; that the situation with Japan was then growing critical; that Japan never declares war but just starts out making a war; even though Guam might be taken in event of an attack by Japan, it would have served its purpose as a warning to our fleet because Japan would not project an attack on the Philippines and Hawaii without first attacking Guam, and in such event, our fleet and defenders of the Philippine and Hawaiian Islands would have had advance knowledge of hostilities so that no surprise attacks could be made.

Yet, in face of such warnings, he led opposition to these recommendations of our Naval Authorities and said that rather than make Japan mad, "I would be willing to let them have it" and "viewed from either point of view it is a bad investment."

HOW TRAGIC IT IS THAT SUCH IMPROVEMENTS AND FORTIFICATIONS WERE NOT MADE.

Copies of the Congressional Records are available for public inspection at most of the public libraries in the District. In his ad, he makes ambitious claims to alleged benefits he obtained for the District; yet, he fails to allude to any effort by him to prevent any waste in public funds.

Ben Stevens waited until his opponent returned to the District in order that they could, in joint debate, discuss the issues, records and qualifications of each so that the people could judge for themselves who can best serve at this time.

His opponent declined. Why?

This is the method his opponent urged ten years ago, when he defeated Congressman Hall. He was then anxious for joint debate. Was it because he did not then have a Congressional record to defend?

He says in his ad that the people of the District have an investment in him. YET, he now declines to go before the people with his record. He says his reason for declining joint debates is that he might be called back to Washington momentarily.

Yet, he has remained in the District continuously since and has refused joint discussions of his record.

Self praise is half scandal.

Ben Stevens has waged his campaign on a high plane and will continue to do so. He has not, and will not, engage in unpleasant personalities.

He will continue to see as many of the people of the district as it is humanly possible for him to see and personally solicit their influence and vote.

The records, qualifications and issues of the respective candidates for public office are the true considerations for the voters.

Ben Stevens is grateful to each of you for what you have already done for him and he will sincerely appreciate the continuance of your interest in his selection as your representative in the National Congress.

Encouraging reports from all over the District assure his election, and in appreciation of your votes and influence, he will, when elected, dedicate and consecrate his best talents, energies and efforts toward the preservation of our country and the safety of our citizens, whether at home or among our Armed Forces. He will represent all the people of our District all the time.

Ole Man Mississippi says

According to history August is a mighty important month to us Americans. Francis Scott Key, composer of our National Anthem, was born Aug. 9, 1780; our War Department was created Aug. 7, 1789; the Naval Academy at Annapolis was started Aug. 10, 1845, and the 19th Amendment, letting women vote, was adopted Aug. 26, 1920

It was also in August, just three years ago, that this Committee started to work. And today, through close cooperation with law enforcement authorities, the sale of beer is being restricted to wholesome, law-abiding places. Those few licensees who flout the law are being driven from Mississippi.

You can help—buy your beer in clean, law-abiding places. If you see any violations, report them at once to your officers, or to this Committee.

Waveland News

A WEDDING that claimed much interest in Waveland and New Orleans was that of Miss Elaine Margaret Lamer, daughter of Mrs. Hazel Dufour Lamer, to Mr. Joseph Victor Colson, which was celebrated Sunday at 2:30 in the morning at St. Claire's Church with the Rev. M. J. Costello, pastor, officiating at a Nuptial Mass. The chancel of the church was decorated with clusters of white gladiolas and lilies and in the main aisle were baskets of white gladiolas, tied with white ribbons.
